MARCH 2023
The perfect time for a getaway with your friends! Find amazing lodging specials, shopping discounts, jewelry workshops and more across Gloucester and Rockport the weekend of March 4-6. Learn more at discovergloucester.com.

APRIL 2023
The buoys are back—boats are going in; kites are flying high in Essex at the Cox Reservation. Spring is here making it a beautiful time of year to visit Cape Ann.

Five Fabulous Towns

GREATER CAPE ANN has something special to offer every type of visitor. It's one of Massachusetts' top destinations for arts and culture with four cultural districts—downtown Rockport, Essex River, plus Rocky Neck and Harbortown in Gloucester. Greater Cape Ann's five charming towns welcome you: In ESSEX take a scenic cruise, paddle-board or fish on the Essex River. It's the birthplace of the fried clam and many restaurants offer waterfront dining. Antique and specialty shops span a one-mile stretch. GLOUCESTER, "America's Oldest Seaport," has one of the finest harbors in Massachusetts. Relax and enjoy its stunning beaches, fishing excursions and whale watching. IPSWICH, an idyllic coastal town, is home to Crane Beach, featuring pristine beachfront, dunes and maritime forest. It also has some of the oldest houses in America. MANCHESTER-BY-THE-SEA captures the small town charm of New England. Explore shops and dining venues, see captivating historic buildings and a picturesque harbor. ROCKPORT is a quaint seaside village with the iconic Motif No. 1 fishing shack. Visit art galleries and stay at delightful inns and B&Bs—perfect for a romantic weekend getaway. Stop by the new Visitor's Center at 24 Harbor Loop in Gloucester for more information.
